
SHIAWASSEE RIVER CLEAN-UP

Waiver Form for Volunteers

I understand that a river and its surrounding banks are a dangerous place and are anticipated to contain fish, rocks, trash, and other potentially dangerous materials, which, if an accident occurred, could cause injury to me. I understand that I could lose my footing and fall, which could result in injuries to muscles, bones, or other body parts and I could cut myself and become infected. I also understand that if tools or equipment are used they may, even if used properly, cause injury. I understand that there are many other more serious injuries that can not be anticipated that I could suffer while I am volunteering for the Shiawassee River Clean-Up. It is my intent to waive any cause of action due to any injury I may sustain while volunteering for the Shiawassee River Clean-Up, against the Friends of the Shiawassee River, its organizers (city and other participating organizations, The Nature Conservancy, et al.), or any owners of land adjacent to the river. I hereby release them from all liability to me.
